GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS (GDPR) – May 2018

The introduction of new regulations in May 2018 requires Boldmere Tennis Club members to provide their consent to Boldmere Tennis Club for the holding and sharing of appropriate personal information. In order for us to comply with GDPR, it is essential that you agree we may hold your personal information for as long as you are a member.

Boldmere Tennis Club respects your personal information and your privacy and we do not share or sell data to third parties. Information held includes your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address and Juniors date of birth. We have taken all steps possible to comply with GDPR and ensure that information is held securely both electronic and hard copy data. Our Compliance Officer is Darrin Gamble.

If your personal details change or your consent alters, it is your responsibility to inform us.

In consenting Boldmere Tennis Club to hold your personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the data held at any time, the right to request/view data held and the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if there is an issue. Our governance guidelines are placed on the Club's Notice Board. The information held will be used to contact you regarding match play, club information, updates and tournaments. In addition we would appreciate your consent to include photography on the Club's website, Facebook or promotional material. Would you please complete the consent information below as appropriate:

I consent/do not consent* for Boldmere Tennis Club to include my telephone number on a membership list in the clubhouse to be shared with fellow members for the arrangement of matches

I consent/do not consent* for Boldmere Tennis Club to contact me on e-mail regarding Club information, updates or tournaments

I consent/do not consent* for Boldmere Tennis Club to use my photographic likeness in all forms of media including the Club's website, Facebook and promotional material

Boldmere Tennis Club does not support "What's App" application as an official communication channel. However, if a member wishes to join an informal group, it is that individual's decision whether or not to provide their number to the requester/organiser of the group.
